STAR THEATRE GOES BACK TO MAC'S HANDS

"Bill" McShaffrey has again taken charge of the Star theatre. This is good news to the lovers of amusement in this vicinity, for under the management of Mr. McShaffrey there was not a place in the country that had more life and enthusiasm than the Star theatre.

The attractions were up to the highest standard and when people went there they were entertained and went home pleased and naturally went back again and "Mac" always kept them coming and going. This morning the change was made and already big improvements are under way and the place has a different look. Mr. McShaffrey will do his own booking and will have the best attractions at all times that the profession affords and people may expect the Star to again become one of the real live centers of the busy town.

Mr. McShaffrey has spent his life in the amusement business and at present he is connected with the Gus Sun circuit and is an active member of the Vaudeville association of Western Pennsylvania and Ohio and is in touch with the best talent in the country. This will be brought to Monessen and the theatre-loving public will be benefitted by this experience and the Star theatre will again have the best talent to be found.

Professor J. Hershberger, superintendent of schools at Conemaugh, has been elected superintendent of the New Kensington schools at $2,000 a year.

COMMISSION HOUSE IS TO BE ERECTED

More definite plans concerning the Wholesale Commission house that is to be erected at the corner of Donner avenue and Eight street were disclosed yesterday afternoon. R. F. Delaney, the well known produce man of McKeesport, is at the head of the new project and, it is said, will have the local branch under his supervision with his offices in McKeesport where the larger house is located.

Plans for the building, which is to be 53 by 100 feet and four stories high, are being drawn up by Architect Lobman of McKeesport. Work is expected to begin in a short time and the construction work rushed to a rapid completion. Arrangements have been made by the P. and L. E. railroad company to put in a special siding at the plant in order to facilitate the handling of produce.

The plant will be a modern one in every detail and will be absolutely fire proof throughout. Large automobile trucks will make the deliveries, part direct from the cars and part from the large storage rooms. It is the intention of Mr. Delaney to make deliveries in the surrounding towns of Belle Vernon, Charleroi, Fayette City, Donora, Monongahela and West Monessen as well as Monessen.

This project when completed should prove a boon to the produce merchants and grocers all along the upper valley in that it will place them in closer touch with the market.

Amateur Boxing Tournament

The sportive element of Monessen will be interested in the amateur boxing tournament in Turner Hall, Homestead, March 29 and 30, under the auspices of the Columbus Athletic Club. Western Penna. A. A. U. will govern the affair in strict form. There will be five classes, 115, 125, 135, 145 pounds and heavyweight, medals to be awarded. Eight ounce gloves will be used. This is an absolute amateur event and every precaution will be taken. Monessen sports may get entry blanks from Thos. Lynch, 619 McClure avenue, Homestead.

C. L. SCHUCK IS OUT FOR STATE LEGISLATURE IN THE SECOND DISTRICT

Carey L. Schuck of Monessen, announces as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the legislature in the second district of Westmoreland county. Mr. Schuck decided to become a candidate upon the earnest solicitation of a number of friends locally and in the section of the county which he will represent if nominated and elected.

If nominated and elected to the office, he declares he will go in for appointment on the Public Roads committee of the House of Representatives and really become of use to his district and the county. This determination refers not only to his immediate vicinity, but also to any petitions or projects of road improvement in any part of the district, which he will take up with a determination to succeed.

No favor may be asked of him that he will not make a reasonable effort to grant or no letter written to him as a member of Assembly which will not receive a prompt and courteous reply. He has had the experience and possesses the knowledge to go about such matters, as well as all of the duties of the office.

Mr Schuck was a former member of the lower house, and gained much valuable knowledge that will be of great interest to this section at this time, as the matter of constructing public highways is the paramount issue in the state. His knowledge of the road business and the keen interest he has manifested in that department of public work on behalf of the community for the past two years will make him especially valuable to this section of the state.

Locally Mr. Schuck has been identified with every public enterprise in the town for a number of years. He has spent much of his time, energy and money to make the town go and it is natural that he should again be advanced by the people of this community as a candidate at this time. We commend his excellent qualifications to the voters of the district and trust the Republicans will nominate him at the primary election April 13th

The man is suffering from five broken ribs and his stomach is partially crushed. The accident occurred while Grant was at work at his usual duties around the mine, his body in some way becoming caught between the two cars and crushed before he was able to extricate himself.

THE STOLL BAKERY IS IN NEW HANDS

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hachat of Mt. Vernon, O., have purchased the Donner avenue bakery from Mat Stoll and took possession Monday. Mr. Hachat is a practical bake shop man and will give his personal attention to the mechanical end, while Mrs. Hachat will look after the store and business department. Mr. and Mrs. Hachat operated a bakery quite successfully for several years at Mt. Vernon, having previously conducted a baking business at one of the Monongahela river towns above Brownsville, hence they are in a manner not wholly strangers to Western Pennsylvania. They will continue to maintain the same up-to date business methods established by Mr. Stoll who has been a Monessen business man almost ever since the town was started. The baking of bread, pies, cakes and all home pastry will be handled with the utmost care and patrons will be tendered every courtesy and most careful attention. A cordial invitation is extended to every one, old patrons or new, to call and get acquainted.

REVIVAL MEETINGS ARE NEARING END

Another large and representative congregation assembled in the Presbyterian church last evening to hear Evangelist Houck. His theme was "Sin." The speaker declared that he had chosen a theme with which all men were familliar by way of experience. The Evangelist divided his sermon into three parts, which he said was the fruitage of sin. First, that sin separated man from God. Second, sin brought unto men sorrow. Third, "that the wages of sin was death."

Through many vivid illustrations and straight bible talk, Rev. Houck portrayed the wages of sin. His language was simple, and his logic clear and clean cut. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap," was pictured so plain that many concluded to sow a different seed from that of the past years.

The song services were the best of the series, under the direction of Prof. Daniel. The largest choir at any of the meetings sang with zeal the old time favorites.

The meetings are deepening in interest and each night since their beginning has seen men and women declaring publicly for a clean and square life for Christ.

The Friday afternoon prayer-meetings will be held at the homes of Mrs. G. M. Mitchell, 465 McKee; Mrs. John Brightwell, corner Oneida and McKee and Mrs. John Manown, 100 Schoonmaker.

An offering will be lifted Friday evening. A hearty welcome to all who may attend.

Four hundred and ninety-five conversions were recorded during a two weeks' revival campaign at Blairsville. The meetings were conducted by Rev. Dr. W. W. Orr, of Charlotte, N. C.

Remember That Oyster Supper

An oyster supper will be given by the members of the United Brethren church, Saturday evening, March 16, from 4:30 until 10 o'clock, in the Speigelberg building, corner of Fourth and Schoonmaker (the room formerly occupied by Warpola and Pasoja's grocery). The expense of the supper will be only 25 cents and a most cordial invitation is extended to every person. 36 6t

OLD MILL MAN RESIGNS FOR NEEDED REST

After a service of fourteen years John O'Connell boss millwright at the local tin mill has tendered his resignation to take effect today. With the outgoing of the day John lays down the responsibilities of the job and declares that he will take a vacation lasting over a period of several weeks before going to work elsewhere. Mr. O'Connell has made many friends during his stay here, both in the mill and out, and it is with regret they will learn of his intentions to leave the town.

Mr. O'Connell still enjoys single blessedness and it is the opinion of a number of his friends that he wants to see some of the country before he takes unto himself a wife and settles down for life. Be that as it may, John will be missed among a large circle of friends.

Protection and Wm. H. Taft]

The Taft meeting held in the Fort Pitt hotel Pittsburgh last night, at which more than 2,000 people assembled to give expression to their pesidential preference, is significant at this time to people in every walk of life. It was not a political meeting but as the chairman said a "meeting for the conserving of every interest." The expressions that were breathed forth at the meeting eminated from men in every walk of life and told forcibly the sentiment of the People in the Pittsburgh district where inoustries furnish the bread to thousands of workmen, skilled and unskilled.

These industries deserve protection from the pauper labor of foreign shores and at this time the tariff issue is both grave and dangerous and should the iniquitous Underwood bill inflict its pretentions upon us the country would be plunged into a panic far greater than that of 1892 when during the administration of Cleveland soup houses were introduced to feed the starving victims. Cold blooded experience has taught many men a sorrowful lesson and they are not anxious to reap the harvest of an "insurgent" element who are waged against the better interests of the country. It is safe to prophesy that as the campaign approaches the solid support of the industrial and business elements of the entire Pittsburgh district will line up and urge the renomination of William H. Taft for the second term as ruler of the greatest nation on earth.

Exclusive Exclusiveness

The "Smart Set" of New York City received the surprise of their lives Monday night at the opening of Winthrop Ames' "Little Theatre," which surely is the pink of perfection in every point and an innovation along the "Great White Way." Exclusive? Well we guess yes! Decidedly and unequivocally yes!! A bran fired new theatre, built right in the heart of the great metropolis of this United States and in the busiest and most thickly settled portion of the famous White Way, and with only actually 299 seats, deep, roomy and comforable—and decorations and accaustics simply perfection personified. Well, exclusiveness to the extreme limit is the idea of the promoter and that was just what struck dumb the elite of society the first evening they filled those 299 seats to witness the opening play. Something new was anticipated but my, oh my! Ushers, coat-room boys, etc., actually refused the customary tip. In the reception room between acts each and every one who occupied one of those 299 downy "exclusive" seats, sipped delicious coffee and nibbled the daintiest of cakes. Then the surprise was complete. No charges, it was all "on the house." Of course, in Monessen, the "New Olympic" came somewhat as an innovation and surprise, but we'll not be perfectly satisfied and at ease until we do have something decidedly "exclusive," as Monessen is too much advanced in the aesthetic and elite to be kept in the back ground.

Jewels of a Woman's Life

There are so many jewels that may be worn day and night; so many gems that are always and only your own that you need not grieve for those that show their brightness only by day. There is the jewel of consideration, that you must wear just over your heart; there is the moonstone of hope that may glitter over your brow, filling the eye with brightness; there is that brilliant stone of sympathy, the emerald that makes you put out the right hand of help; and there is the beautiful one of loving kindness that makes the left hand help the right. But above all, overshadowing all, pinning down your tresses is the diamond of true love—love which endureth all, suffereth all, hopeth all. Are these not better than jewels dug from the earth? For, indeed, these jewels come from the heaven above.

President William Howard Taft occupied the pulpit of the First Methodist church in Washington street, Chicago, Sunday in response to an invitation from the pastor, the Rev. Ernest W. O'Neal to give his testimony. President Taft paid a high tribute to the work of missions, as follows: "It is not the warriors, nor the diplomats, who carry civilization forward, and while there is great need of missonary work in the home field, that is no reason for the restriction of foreign missions which are doing so much good in spreading civilization to the end that the world may yet become Christianized."

We have often wondered what that quality was in the make-up of many which prompts them to rise from their seats at the play, the concert, church service or other public assemblages, quite a few moments before the close. It matters not much as to the length of the entertainment or service these restless folk, it seems, must get up and leave the building about ten or fifteen minutes before anybody else. Some like to show their new clothes, we presume, others may wish to get a good position outside to watch for his "best girl," but blamed if we can figure out what those who have no girl, or those who haven't exceptionlly fine raiment find to take them out before the curtain falls or the good brother dismisses the congregation.

Governor Tener's Aid is Sick

Much apprehension is felt regarding the condition of Col. A. H. Anderson of Gov. John K. Tener's staff, who is critically ill at his home at Venetia, Washington county. A report today stated the patient's condition was regarded as very grave. Col. Anderson has been ill about 10 days, becoming worse yesterday.

The First Bread.

The "staff of life" was by no means the first item on men's bill of fare For we know not how many ages human beings lived entirely without bread or anything approaching it in character. The first men were hunters and lived mostly on the flesh of the creatures they killed in the chase The pastoral stage, which followed the hunter period, supplied milk along with the flesh of the domestic animals, and bread was practically unknown until men had settled down to agriculture. The Chinese emperor Ching Noung is said to have been the first to teach men the art of husbandry and the method of making bread from wheat about 4,000 years before Christ.

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time.

"Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything.

"Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Wauchula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles.

"I got two bottles of Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman.

"I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MATTIE HODNOT, Box 406, Wauchula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself.

"I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKENBERRY, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed.

"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it.

"I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLAYTON, 1039 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

Facts And Fiction

Experiences of Monessen Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Monessen is true. Read it and compare evidence from Monessen people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Monessen will endorse Doan'o Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, 452 McKee avenue, Monessen, Pa., says: "I think that the change of drinking water when I moved here was the cause of my kidney trouble. The kidney secretions became irregular in passage and caused me annoyance. I was subject to dizzy spells, could not sleep well and was very nervous. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box from the Hirsch Drug Co. and commenced their use. They have greatly helped me and have lived up to all the claims made for them."

B. WHITE Co's $500,000 STOCK

FURNITURE CARPETS, RUGS AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

This immense 8-story building and 2 large warehouses are filled from top to bottom with B. White Co. furniture—more than any other store has.

Sale is being held in this building—the B. White Co. store, Ohio and Sandusky Streets, Allegheny. One big square from Federal Street.

Be sure you go to the right store—it's on the corner.

On Sale in Allegheny, Pa.

The greatest furniture, carpet and rug sale ever held in the United States has just started.

You will get greater values than were ever given by any store anywhere. You will get bargains absolutely without parallel or precedent. This sale will make history.

B. White Co. had more furniture, carpets and rugs than any other Pittsburgh Store. Their immense 8-story building in Allegheny is not big enough to hold it all; two great warehouses in addition are required to properly house the entire B. White Co. stock.

We bought every dollar's worth of B. White Co. stock---no other store has a single piece.

We bought the B. White Co. Stock from the South Side Trust Co., Receivers in Bankruptcy, and it's only because of a bankruptcy purchase that such amazing prices can be quoted.

Note the vast difference between the B. White Co.'s prices and our sale prices. Then remember that B. White Co.'s prices were lower than any other Pittsburgh store's !

Notice the superb quality of B. White Co.'s furniture, carpets and rugs. White's selected only reliable grades of merchandise. Goods such as are sold by the finest exclusive furniture stores were the rule, not the exception. There are goods fit to grace the finest mansions, or goods not so costly, which will appeal to those of moderate means.

As rapidly as one lot of goods is sold, another takes its place. You can come any time and be assured of getting the bargains of a lifetime. You'll find what you want.

You have the facts,

Come!

London Good Oyster Market.

London is a great consumer of oysters. The cheapness of the delicacy half a century ago created a demand for it, which has hung with the appetites of the people as tenaciously as the habit of smoking a pipe has among the men. It is estimated that London consumes a billion a year, and the record shows that in 1864, when prices were very low, 700,000,000 were eaten.

News Notes of Society

The sixth winter dance by the Monessen Club last night in the Kelly hall was a most pleasing affair, the membership being exceptionally well represented. This series of social affairs has been ruaning all winter and the membership list is confined to an exclusive circle of families who enjoy sociability and a little diversion in the purest and simplest sense at stated intervals, and last night's number proved the most successful of this winter season's program. It is thought that one more event will complete the series. The excellent music furnished by the Reiner orchestra was enjoyed and much complimented.

Miss Margaret Snyder, of Knox avenue, last evening entertained a number of her young girl friends. Needle and fancy work, along with songs, instrumental music, games and the like, furnished ample pastime and the evening was most cheerfully passed by all. At 11 o'clock a most daintily prepared lunch was served by the hostess, which was much enjoyed by the guests. These young ladies are taking steps to form a social club the details of which have not as yet been wholly worked out.

Mrs. A. R. Ney, will entertain this evening at her home on McKee avenue with a bridge whist party.

Among the Theatres

THE STAR

Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee, Fuller's Minstrelettes and vaudeville entertainers will fill the boards at the Olympic theatre. In the company there are 8 people, every one an artist, and a big treat is in store for the lovers of this form of entertainment. Special scenery is used exclusively in this act and the costuming alone presents a small fortune. Moving pictures direct from the manufacturers will be shown also, and these will embrace some of the latest ideas in photo plays. As a special feature for tomorrow and on every Friday hereafter, we have secured, "The Gaumont Weekly," a picture similar to the Pathe Weekly describing the important happenings of the world in every locality. Don't miss this exceptional feature every Friday. 1t

For the last three days of the week at the Star, Manager McShaffrey has secured one of the strongest bills that has ever been seen in this city before. Reese's Big City Minstrels, a troupe of 14 people. Ten men and four ladies, present a big evening's entertainment all by themselves and they certainly can do it according to the reports that have come from all the places in which they have played. A big concert band of 10 pieces is carried and concerts are given daily. The show lasts over an hour and in addition, the Starograph, the only absolutely fire proof moving picture machine made will present several very interesting subjects on the day-light curtain. 1t

OLYMPIC

"The Indian Massacre" at the Olympic today is the costliest frontier film that has ever been produced in the history of motion photography. The Buffalo hunt, the capture of the hunter by the blood thirsty Indians and the final Indian Massacre which results in the wiping out of a whole band of Indians because of their atrocious deeds. A big feature in two reels and without doubt one of the best of its kind ever shown before.

"THE ARAB'S BRIDE"

A wealthy Moor had one treasure that he failed to prize at its proper value, his daughter; he endeavored to marry her to a wealthy countryman but her choice was otherwise. The story ends up in a manner that is pleasing to all parties concerned except the rich suitor but his consolation comes through his riches.

"BLIGHTED LIVES"

Two men are in love with the same girl and after one is accepted, he becomes temporarily financially embarrassed. The skeins of an interesting plot begin to twine around the successful suitor at this point and are not straightened until "two lives are blighted." 1t

THE BIJOU

Children, grownups and grandfolks all clamor for the "Pathe Weekly" and the day has come again. At the Bijou today, all of the latest and most important happenings of the world shown in moving pictures. Two other good pictures including, "The Tory's Oath of Vengeance," a splendid historical picture of scenes at the time of the Revolutionary War. Thrilling battle scenes and hair breadth escapes mark this picture as one of the best of its kind. Special music daily by our unbeatable orchestra. 1t

THE LUNA

Special features, special music, special attention to children and every comfort of our many patrons looked after by competent attendants at all times. "The Luna," where the best people go. 39-3t

A big treat at the Luna this evening. "The Diamond Brooch" by the Vitagraph. Also Maurice Costello and G. M. Anderson the favorites of the people. 1t

"Heroism," a thrilling drama of the exciting rescue of a little child from a burning building. Showing at the Luna today. 1t

Special attraction today at the Luna theatre, Maurice Costello, the Vitagraph favorite, in "The Diamond Brooch." 1t

Maurice Costello and G. M. Anderson, the two favorites of Monessen people at the Luna today. 1t

Don't miss the big fire story at the Luna today. "Heroism." 1t

Getting Strict Over in Somerset

Judge Ruppel of Somerset county has created a stir among liquor and hotel proprietors. He requested the hotel men to form an association to co operate with the court in having saloons on holidays and abolishing joint pool and bar rooms. After April 1 the bars will close at 9 p. m. and open at 7 a. m., instead of opening at 5 a. m. and closing at 10 p. m.

Economical Agnes

By Adele Mendel

"What are you looking so blue about Agnes? As though you had been steeped in indigo. Isn't the latest fashion in hair dressing becoming to you or has your father cut down your allowance?" asked Celine.

"Dad hasn't diminished my allowance, but doubled it on the condition that I don't attempt to economize any more."

"Has he had a brain storm?"

"Indeed not. He says my economies cost more than other people's luxuries. My lisle stocking income and silk stocking proclivities don't coincide.

"The first time I wore my white serge suit Jack and I were at the Tea Shop, where the waitress spilt a glass of ice tea over it. Jack bemoaned my fate. I smiled serenely, trying to show what a nice disposition I had. The next day I dipped the gown in gasoline, but I had taken the wrong jug, it was kerosene."

"Was it ruined?" asked Celine.

"We sent it to the cleaner's, but nothing would eradicate that odor. After using three bottles of imported violet perfume on it I hung it in the back yard to air. When it seemed safe to risk wearing it, the skirt was gone, stolen."

"Another time I thought it would be sanitary to give our bath tub a fresh coat of enamel. Dad brought home a portly millionaire friend from Kansas. Father wanted Mr. Smith to invest some of his surplus cash in a certain stock company. Our guest said upon retiring he'd think it over. Mr. Smith is accustomed to taking an early plunge. The enamel wasn't quite dry, and he 'stuck to it.' After repeated calls dad rushed to the rescue. At breakfast he was as surly as a bear and snapped at me when I suggested a remedy. Father didn't dare mention stocks, and we have never seen or heard from him since."

"Did you ever try your hand at painting after that?"

"Yes, our porch furniture looked so shabby I painted the chairs."

"They look just like new."

"Oh, these are the new ones We couldn't use the others. Father and mother were going automobiling. While mother was waiting on the veranda, she exclaimed suddenly in the most aggravated tone: 'Look at my new silk dress.' It was a spotted foulard, I assure you, spots of green paint all over it. After we thought the chairs were dry some one would discover a daub of paint on their suit. Dad's patience was finally exhausted, so he bought these rockers."

"Is your brother out of town?" asked Celine.

"Yes."

"There's some class to him when he wears that light gray suit."

"Don't mention that suit to me. Bob said: 'Sis, get rid of my gray suit, I don't want it any more.'

"One of those Armenians came to the door with a suit case of kimonos and I exchanged the suit for a silk kimono."

"What an excellent idea What did Bob say about your business ability?"

"I'd hate to tell you. He nearly collapsed when he found I had traded the new suit.

"Mother had selected a new refrigerator at what seemed an exorbitant price. I attended a furniture auction sale, and after waiting four hours, procured an ice box all porcelain and glass for only ten dollars more than the other would have cost When it came it was 16 inches too high and 10 inches too wide for the pantry."

"Did you send it back?"

"No; it was bought on the condition that it could not be returned."

"Don't you trim your own hats?"

"Not since I blackened my leghorn with shoe polish. Jack and I were caught in a rain storm. Jack gave one howl. 'You look like a coal black lady!' he roared. The shoe polish had dripped off.

"Another time I had needed my white pique skirt in a hurry so the cook washed it and I put it in the oven to dry and turned the gas low, I forgot all about it and the skirt was burned to a crisp.

"But that wasn't even as bad as the time I dyed my last blue messaline, coronation purple.'

"Was it a success?' interrupted Celine.

"No, the dress became a hideous purple, but the pan containing the dye slipped. The sink, the table, the wall, everything was tinged with violet. The maid threatened to leave, said she never worked in a purple kitchen, and never intended to. We had the wall cleaned and raised her wages."

"I certainly don't blame your father."

"You needn't sympathize with him. My allowance won't be doubled very long Jack says he thinks I would make a dear, sweet, economical wife."

Wind Wagon Travels Fast.

Mme. Bleriot has a wind wagon or aeroplane invented by her husband, which stays on the ground, but is otherwise like a monoplane. It is designed on principles similar to the yacht, but it is on wheels and is driven in the same way that an aeroplane is propelled. Mme. Bleriot goes out on the sands in it with her five children, traveling at the rate of sixty miles an hour.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Pearl Divers in Australia.

The Queensland (Australia) diver gets into his dress at daybreak, steps onto the ladder over the side, and fastens the life line around him; the tender screws on the face glass, the pumps are started and down goes the diver to look for shell. If he is on ground where shell is plentiful he fills his bag, then allows his dress to fill with air, which brings him to the surface, when he is hauled to the boat by the life line. He empties his bag onto the deck and goes down for another sackful. Some of the divers occasionally work in 25 fathoms.

The greatest danger with which the diver has to contend is paralysis, and knowing the risk he runs he sometimes demands $1,000 in advance, and this amount is sometimes lost to the pearler through the zeal and daring of the diver.
